

EMOMS Toys & Togs HOLDING--- Rules & Registration Form

April 12, 2008

1. You must register to use holding. See form below. You may print it out and bring it with you to the sale or fill it out at the sale. When you want to you drop your items off in holding and turn in the completed form, you will be assigned a holding number which will be written on a sticker. It will be needed to reclaim your intended purchase.
2. When you place items in holding, you are agreeing to purchase all items. All items placed in holding must be purchased.
3. The holding pick-up line is near the exit/cashier door.
4. To reclaim you items, get in the check out line. When you are near the cashiers, give holding personnel your holding number and a brief description of your items. Holding personnel will bring you your items while you are in line.
5. You have 1 hour to pick up your “stuff”. Extensions are available.
 - a. Items left past their allotted time may be placed back on the floor for sale.
 - b. When the line gets long, you get an automatic extension if you are in the check out line. Holding personnel will walk down the line and call your number.
6. Do NOT place items in holding that you are just thinking about. Holding is only for items that are to be purchased.

Holding registration form:

Name _____ Phone # _____

Mailing or
Email address _____ Date _____

I agree to the holding rules including purchasing all items placed in holding.

Signature

For official use only
Holding #